         (Whereupon, the following is an excerpt from the proceedings taken on 11/1/05 in re WorldCom, Inc., et al, Case No.
5 02-13533.)
6
         JUDGE GONZALEZ: Please be seated.
7
         All right. Let's proceed.
8
         MR. FRIEDMAN: Thank you, Your 9 Honor. Robert Friedman from Kelley Drye &
10 Warren.
11
          JUDGE GONZALEZ: Speak louder, 12 please.
13
          MR. FRIEDMAN: Sure. Robert Friedman from Kelley Drye & Warren for the 15 Claimant Parus Holdings. Good afternoon, 16 Your Honor.
          We are before the Court yet again 17 18 on what we believe is the Debtors' failure to 19 produce the most relevant documents in this 20 case. The last few times we were before the 21 Court, Your Honor, Your Honor recognized that 22 there would likely be significant issues with 23 respect to the Debtors' production and their 24 decision as to which documents to review and 25 produce. You directed us, in light of a 0004
           Proceedings
 1 2 representation that more documents were coming, to wait until we review those 4 documents to hone in on the deficiencies. We 5 have reviewed the documents that were 6 produced to us by the Debtors, and we have honed in on the deficiencies, Your Honor; 7 8 and, unfortunately, there are many 9 deficiencies.
           We have attempted to address these 10 11 deficiencies. We have called Debtors' 12 counsel. We wrote a letter to the Court on 13 October 11th. We wrote a letter to counsel 14 on October 24th, after we discussed these 15 matters at a conference with Judge Morris.
 16 We have yet to receive any substantive response to our concerns. 18 The Debtors have filed a 19 Supplemental Response, which we believe 20 repeats a lot of what they have presented to 21 the Court before. We were never served with 22 this response. We did obtain it yesterday 23 when we were checking the docket. 24 What I would like to do is just 25 give the Court a few examples, because from 0005 1 Proceedings 2 our standpoint what is most telling is what we don't have and we know or believe should 4 exist. 5 Directing the Court to our Request

6 Nos. 18 and 19, which relates to documents 7 concerning communications between the 8 Debtors, Intermedia and WorldCom, concerning 9 the Unified Communications Agreement. This 10 is related to both our tort and contract 11 claims. Request No. 19, which are documents 12 relating to the termination of my client's 13 contract with Intermedia.

The Debtors have produced a total of one document relating to these requests.
These are, in our view, some of the most relevant documents to both our contract and tort claims. Just to give the Court a little context as to why these documents are so relevant, we have evidence now, Your Honor, that when the merger was announced in September of 2000, there was internally within WorldCom no intention of ever carrying forward with my client's contract with Intermedia. They knew that they were going

1 Proceedings 2 to either sell it or take some other action with respect to not going forward with the Unified Communications Agreement. 5 Now, the merger was closed in July 6 of 2001. That is a crucial time period, 7 between September of 2000 and July of 2001. We know that they have no intention of going 9 forward right now. We know that in early 10 2001, there were no new accounts opened. We 11 know that the merger closed in July of 2001. 12 We know that the head of this project for 13 Intermedia was fired almost immediately upon 14 the closing of the merger in 2001. We know 15 that not only were no new accounts opened. 16 but accounts were cancelled shortly thereafter. This all, Your Honor, didn't 18 happen in a vacuum. It is obvious. It is 19 plain on its face. This decision in this

20 process was ongoing from the fall of 2000 up

- 21 through July of 2001, and yet we have one
- 22 single document and that document doesn't
- 23 even really relate to communications between
- 24 and among the Debtors. Clearly this was an
- 25 ongoing process with many documents relating 0007
 - Proceedings

1

- 2 to communications. There has been no showing
- 3 in any of these factual submissions as to
- 4 whether we even have documents from WorldCom.
- 5 It appears that the factual presentation from
- 6 the Debtors so far is related only to
- 7 Intermedia documents. We have attempted to
- 8 get the answer to this, and we haven't been
- 9 given a straight answer as to whether
- 10 WorldCom has produced documents. We haven't
- 11 received any electronic documents.
- 12 Right now, to have a single
- 13 document on two of these most important
- 14 requests is an indication to us -- which is
- 15 the only way we can present this, since we
- 16 don't know what is there -- that there are
- 17 deficiencies in the production. There are
- 18 other examples, Your Honor.
 - Request No. 16, relating to
- 20 communications between the parties regarding
- 21 the crucial Unified Communications Agreement,
- 22 there are no documents produced. We have
- 23 other examples. Part of what we believe,
- 24 Your Honor, is because WorldCom had a
- 25 competing product to our Unified 0008

Proceedings

- 2 Communications product. They basically
- 3 tanked our product. That is, in part, the
- 4 basis of some of our tort claims, and our
- 5 unfair competition, unfair and deceptive
- 6 practices claims. Yet, Your Honor, we have
- 7 requested and we have received no documents
- 8 relating to WorldCom's competing genD
- 9 product, and we have received no response
- 10 regarding our request to receive these
- 11 documents.
- 12 We have received no documents
- 13 relating to the evaluation of the Effectnet
- 14 finances. Again, WorldCom had a private
- 15 equity arm that was looking into an
- 16 investment into Effectnet. At the same time
- 17 that they were tanking our product, they were
- 18 actually taking our confidential information
- 19 and using it. We have requested information
- 20 relating to this review of Effectnet. They
- 21 have only produced some unrelated information
- 22 relating to Webley. They have produced
- 23 nothing relating to Effectnet, nothing
- 24 relating to WorldCom Ventures, which was a

25 private equity arm that was considering this 0009

Proceedings

2 advancement, that, obviously, they decided 3 not to go forward with, because they knew that the main asset of Parus was going to be tanked.

6 We have requested the personal 7 files of the key actors. We have received none of that. We have received no electronic 9 production, except there is a representation 10 that one former employee has searched their electronic files. We have received no other 12 electronic files from either WorldCom or 13 Intermedia. WorldCom was not a defunct 14 entity. It has its computer system. We have 15 provided search terms. There has been no 16 response, except to say that they are 17 considering our search terms. Since that 18 system is intact, there should just be an 19 immediate search and then they come back to 20 us and say, "Okay. We have the X number of 21 documents. Let's discuss what we do with 22 them." "It is too much." "It is too 23 little." There has been none of this. They 24 haven't even told us that they are searching.

Proceedings

employee of electronic documents right now, and this is the same time that they filed a summary judgment motion, Your Honor.

25 We don't have a shred, aside from this one

We believe, Your Honor, that it is 5 essential at this point with all the time and opportunity that has been granted to the 7 Debtors to comply with their obligations, 9 that we take depositions or a deposition of 10 the WorldCom/Intermedia individuals who have 11 knowledge of their document retention, their 12 selection of documents, and their production 13 of documents. There are significant 14 questions that are raised by their response 15 and their lack of clarity in the information 16 that they are giving us as to that 17 methodology.

18 They have done, apparently, some 19 sampling of documents. We don't know what 20 their methodology was for the sampling or 21 what percentages they used, the exact boxes 22 that they reviewed and then disregarded. 23 Somehow they had 10,000 boxes -- now, these 24 are only Intermedia. Again, they haven't 25 produced any WorldCom documents, to our 0011

2 knowledge, or at least from what they have

3 told us. They have gone from 10,000 boxes to 450 boxes to 12 boxes. We don't know how 5 that occurred. The only information we have is that they use some dates, which is fine.
7
   That is a perfectly acceptable way to start.
   We don't know how many boxes were eliminated by the dates. We don't want documents prior 10 to January of 2000. If they took the 11 documents and separated all of the ones that 12 were prior to January of 2000 and said, 13 "Okay. That is how we got down to 450," then 14 that is a responsible response. However, we 15 don't know how they got down to 12 after 16 that. Again, they did some sampling. We 17 don't know how and we don't know why.
18
          The other thing they say is, "Well, 19 we have some subject matter indexes." Well, 20 we have reviewed those indexes, Your Honor, 21 and the only subject matters that had any 22 type of help, at least to us -- and based 23 upon the submissions, there has been no 24 clarity with respect to how they went about 25 it -- were 14. Fourteen out of 10,000.
0012
1
          Proceedings
   There are many inconsistencies within this group, within the indices and the ones they have chosen for production. I am just going to cite a few examples, Judge, but there are many more. For example, there were five boxes marked, quote, "MBA," unquote, for the 7 8 time period November 2000 to December 2000, 9 that were marked for review. There were 20 10 boxes with the exact same marking in a 11 similar date range that were not marked for 12 review. Now, these are not marked for 13 production. These are just marked for

There were five boxes marked, quote, "Tampa FL, Florida," unquote, with a submarking "CS + SOL&P Files-E," close quote.
There were five of those boxes, Judge, that were marked for selection for review and 60 boxes with the same designation and a similar date range that were not reviewed.

There were three boxes with a marking "BEV File Cabinet" that were marked for review. There were 11 others that were 0013

14 review. I assume this means how they got to

1 Proceedings

15 the 10,000 to the 450.

2 not selected.

Your Honor, we need, as I said, in our view, a deposition on both the hard copy documents and the electronic documents. We believe, based on the lack of production on

7 these important group of documents, based on 8 the inconsistencies, based on the lack of 9 information with regard to the selection, the 10 culling, and how they went about producing 11 the documents, aside from the fact that there 12 may have been some date elimination, which is 13 reasonable, we believe the only way to go 14 about it at this point is to depose a quick 15 deposition or depositions of the people who 16 were responsible for the maintenance, 17 storage, retention, indexing and the 18 electronic document production.
          JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right.
19 20 WorldCom?
21
          MR. FRIEDMAN: Judge, just one more 22 thing. I would also like some type of Court ordered production date for their full production of documents, if the Court is 25 going to grant our motion to compel; or if 0014
1
           Proceedings
2 the Court is going to grant it in a limited 3 fashion with respect to some of the documents 4 that I identified. In that interim, we are 5 requesting depositions of the witnesses with the right to renew, based upon the 7 information that we get. Thank you.
8
         JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right. The 9 Debtors?
10
          MR. DRISCOLL: Thank you, Your 11 Honor. Robert Driscoll for WorldCom.
12
          Like all document requests, Parus
13 Holdings' document requests in this matter 14 did not ask for a particular document. They 15 asked for categories of documents. WorldCom 16 in its production has produced documents 17 responsive to 30 of the 31 categories that 18 appear in the document request.
19
          The motion before the Court deals
20 exclusively with WorldCom's alleged failure 21 to make document discovery. We have 22 discussed before, and I am not going to 23 belabor the Court with another discussion, 24 about how the give and take went back and 25 forth concerning the boxes of documents of 0015
1
           Proceedings
2 Intermedia. It did go back and forth, and shortly after the last suggestion we made to Parus Holdings about how to proceed with that particular situation, this motion was filed.
   The motion does not concern the quality of our production. The motion expressly excludes electronic discovery. The motion

9 does not mention deposition discovery. In10 other words, all of the things that counsel just spoke to the Court about are not addressed in the motion that is before the 13 Court. 14 Referencing specifically WorldCom's 15 Supplemental Response, which was filed last 16 Thursday, WorldCom has produced in excess of 17 29,000 pages of documents in response to 18 Parus' document request. It has been able to 19 locate documents responsive to 30 of the 31 20 categories, as I mentioned to you a moment 21 ago. It has interviewed in excess of 20 22 current, primarily former, employees of 23 WorldCom or Intermedia to locate documents. 24 WorldCom's attorneys have spent in excess of 25 350 hours just going through the Intermedia 0016 Proceedings 1 2 documents alone. Now, just addressing the electronic 4 discovery point specifically, WorldCom has produced thousands of e-mail copies to Parus Holdings. Approximately eight boxes of those 7 e-mails were reviewed by our attorneys and 8 tens of hundreds of e-mails were produced in 9 response to that. Attached to our 10 Supplemental Opposition, Your Honor, are the 11 indices of the documents produced by WorldCom 12 in this matter. Those include advising 13 whether they came from some source other than 14 the Intermedia boxed documents or those boxed 15 documents. In excess of 6,482 of the 16 produced documents are not from the 17 Intermedia boxes. They are from other 18 sources, including these electronic 19 documents -- the paper version of these 20 electronic documents -- that have, in fact, 21 been produced. I would submit, Your Honor, that on 23 the evidence before the Court, WorldCom under 24 the current situation has made reasonable 25 efforts to find, locate, review, and produce 0017 Proceedings 2 documents that are responsive to their 3 request. 4 JUDGE GONZALEZ: When are you going 5 to finish? 6 MR. DRISCOLL: I am sorry? 7 JUDGE GONZALEZ: When are you going 8 to finish your review and complete your 9 production? 10 MR. DRISCOLL: Consistent with our 11 obligations under the rules, those efforts continue. But as far as the documents --12 13 JUDGE GONZALEZ: What are you

14 looking at today? I don't want to waste a

1101wcm-parus(1).txt 15 lot of time. I have spent enough time on the discovery dispute. When is your initial 17 review going to be complete? MR. DRISCOLL: It is complete, Your 18 19 Honor. 20 JUDGE GONZALEZ: What are you 21 reviewing now? MR. DRISCOLL: Nothing in 22 23 particular, other than trying to find 24 additional witnesses and additional 25 documents. 0018 1 Proceedings 2 JUDGE GONZALEZ: So you have produced every document? 4 MR. DRISCOLL: That we believe are 5 responsive to the document request that we 6 know about. 7 JUDGE GONZALEZ: An issue that Parus Holdings has raised is how you discriminated among the documents; is that 10 correct? 11 MR. DRISCOLL: How we what? 12 JUDGE GONZALEZ: How you 13 discriminated among the documents. How you 14 determined which documents to produce and how 15 you determined boxes were not relevant, that 16 is an issue that they have raised. MR. DRISCOLL: Your Honor, that 17 18 issue was addressed in Mr. Ramsey's affidavit 19 in our initial response to the Court. 20 Mr. Ramsey advised in that affidavit -- and I 21 think it is paragraph 3, but I am going by 22 raw memory here -- precisely how he and the 23 lawyers under his supervision went about 24 selecting the boxes to review. They are 25 those that cover the date ranges pre the 0019 1 Proceedings 2 November 2000 contract at issue. I believe they started in January of 2000 and went through 2002. The contract was terminated in 5 April of 2002. That was the date range. 6 They looked at box descriptions, 7 and if the descriptions fit the document 8 requests, those were pulled. If there were 9 descriptions that did not fit, but we 10 couldn't tell what it was, those were pulled. 11 With regard to the sampling that 12 counsel said he didn't know about, on August 13 12th -- and this appears as Exhibit 2 to our 14 Supplemental Opposition -- I wrote to counsel for Parus Holdings and advised him precisely how the sampling took place and advised him that what we had done was where we couldn't

18 tell from a description on a box, if it

1101wcm-parus(1).txt 19 looked like it might have something, that we 20 would sample boxes of that sort. If it 21 turned out there were responsive things in 22 the boxes with that label, we pulled them all 23 and we looked at them all. That is in 24 writing and it is in evidence in this Court. 25 JUDGE GONZALEZ: So you have 0020 1 Proceedings 2 completed that process, in your view? MR. DRISCOLL: Yes, sir. 4 JUDGE GONZALEZ: At least one example is mentioned. There is only one 5 6 document produced with respect to a specific 7 category, and that, at least in Parus 8 Holdings' view, there should have been 9 considerably more. Is there any response to 10 that, as to the accuracy of the description 11 of what was produced and the number of 12 documents related to that category that were, 13 in fact, produced? 14 MR. DRISCOLL: When counsel is 15 speaking, I can look at the document index to make, at least, a paper review of that. At 17 the moment, I can't respond to that 18 factually, because I don't know. But I can 19 find out the answer to that and provide the 20 answer to the Court, if the Court wishes. 21 JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right. 22 MR. DRISCOLL: Excuse me, Your 23 Honor. May I ask counsel a question as to the document number? 24 25 JUDGE GONZALEZ: Go ahead. 0021 1 Proceedings 2 MR. FRIEDMAN: It is 18 and 19. 3 MR. DRISCOLL: 18 and 19. Thank 4 you, Your Honor. 5 MR. FRIEDMAN: I believe I can help out counsel on 18, because I can quote from 7 his response. 8 JUDGE GONZALEZ: Just speak into 9 the microphone though, please.

13 ahead. 14 15 Request No. 18, which, again, are documents

MR. FRIEDMAN: With respect to

MR. FRIEDMAN: Yes. May I respond

JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right. Go

16 relating to communications between WorldCom 17 and Intermedia, especially preclosing of the 18 merger, relating to the Intermedia product,

19 the Intermedia product with my client, the 20 Unified Communications product, where we know

21 there are thousands upon thousands of 22 documents. There just has to be.

to a few points, Your Honor?

23 This is the response from their 24 papers: "WorldCom has not located any 25 documents regarding communications between 0022 1 Proceedings 2 WorldCom and Intermedia regarding the general agreement between Intermedia and Parus Holdings' predecessor Effectnet." 5 According to the indices that they 6 have provided, there is not one single document on Request No. 19, which relates to 8 the termination of our product; and I went 9 through other examples as well. These are 10 just examples. When we look at paragraph 3 11 of Mr. Ramsey's affidavit, he doesn't give 12 any information as to the percentages they 13 used for sampling the methodology. All he 14 does say, which is repeated in the letter, 15 is: "We have done some sampling." For 16 example, if there were five boxes and they 17 didn't appear to be relevant with the same 18 label, then we went on to the next. But 19 there are inconsistencies, as I said. I have 20 only pointed out three inconsistencies. Your 21 Honor. We need to get to the bottom of this.

What has been presented to us, they 23 have told they are complete with their 24 production. There is almost nothing relating 25 to these communications between the parties, 0023

1 Proceedings almost nothing relating to the Unified Communications.

4 Counsel says that they have produced e-mails. I am not quite clear yet whether they have searched the system -because that is where the documents are going 8 to be, on their system -- or whether these 9 were printed out hard copy e-mails. That is 10 not what we are talking about. In our view, 11 those are hard copy documents. As the Court 12 well knows from handling the WorldCom matter. 13 that most relevant documents are going to be 14 e-mails between the parties that are taken 15 from the system. WorldCom has their system. 16 It is readily accessible. We have received 17 zero documents from that. We have received 18 zero documents from Intermedia's electronic 19 system.

Now, counsel is correct when he 21 says that, as a technical matter, we did not 22 move to compel on these electronic search 23 issues, because the day before we filed our 24 motion to compel, we received a communication 25 from Debtors' counsel saving, "Oh, we have 0024

Proceedings
1 2 now located all these backup tapes." Since that time, and what our position was from the beginning, Your Honor, is, "Okay. Well, 5 let's try to develop a factual record." So 6 we have asked them, "Well, what is going to 7 be involved in this?" "Can we reduce the 8 servers?" "Can we do this? Can we do that?"
9 We have gotten wildly inconsistent 10 information. They told us first $900,000.
11 Then they submitted an affidavit that said it 12 ranges between $500,000 and $2 million. We 13 have no idea right now what it is going to 14 take to get these documents. Right now, at 15 this point, we have two and a half weeks 16 until we file our summary judgment response, 17 Your Honor. We need to get this information 18 immediately. That is why we had asked for 19 depositions, and that is why we believe 20 depositions are necessary, because there are more questions right now, than answers.
21
22 JUDGE GONZALEZ: When is the 23 summary judgment scheduled right now?
          MR. FRIEDMAN: The hearing is on due November 18th.

         JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right. Do the 3 4
   Debtors have anything further?
5
         MR. DRISCOLL: Yes, Your Honor, 6
   very briefly.
7
         With regard to the summary judgment 8 response, nothing in the motion for summary judgment requires evidence. These are 10 matters purely of law and contract 11 interpretation. That is number one. Number 12 two, with regard to electronic discovery, we 13 did not receive until a week ago from Parus 14 Holdings, the parameters of the desired 15 search, consisting of names of people and 16 search terms. The practicalities of what has 17 been requested are being investigated. But 18 that investigation just started, because we 19 didn't have the information as to what they 20 wanted. Now, we do.
          JUDGE GONZALEZ: All right. What I 21 22 am going to order is Parus Holdings can take 23 the depositions regarding the hard copy 24 production. Hold off on the electronic until 25 you are getting a full response from 0026 days to take the depositions. If necessary.

4 the Court will entertain another request for

I'm not aware that they 17 18 did. Again that's -- you had not requested anything from WorldCom ventures and that term I 20 wasn't familiar with until your October '05 letter. 21 Q. Were they asked for any analysis they 22 may have done of either Webley's financials, or 23 products, or EffectNet's financials or products? 24 A. Some were asked about Webley, as I 25 recall. I don't recall about EffectNet.
